

Clearing Apprentices to IBEW 993

Apprentice Terms

IBEW 993 splits up each year into two terms, so a 993 apprenticeship has eight total terms. After every reported 900 hours, an apprentice will move to the next term.

An apprentice cannot go higher than three terms past their current school level.

Example:

- A 4th term apprentice must have their second year schooling successfully completed.
- A 6th term apprentice must have their third year schooling successfully completed.
- An 8th term apprentice must have their fourth year schooling successfully completed.

J/Wire

An apprentice must have successfully passed their Interprovincial Exam and received their Red Seal before they can be cleared as a J/Wire.

Apprentice Hours and Term Changes

IBEW 993 apprentices submit their hours to the IBEW 993 office for tallying and submission to the apprenticeship authority. When a term change is due, the IBEW 993 office will inform the contractor.

When an apprentice from another local is working within IBEW 993's jurisdiction, the other local is to inform the IBEW 993 office at office@ibew993.org when a term change is due and the IBEW 993 office will inform the contractor. Term changes will be processed as they are received by the IBEW 993 office and cannot be backdated.

The IBEW 993 office will not keep track of an apprentice's hours from another local.
